THE OTHER SONG: INTERNATIONAL ACADEMY OF ADVANCED HOMOEOPATHY

About The Sensation Method and the Synergy in Homoeopathy

Originated by Dr. Rajan Sankaran and his colleagues, The Sensation Method is based on the premise that deep inside each individual is a specific and distinct energy that shapes who we are our likes and dislikes, the way we think, act and feel, and finally our illnesses and diseases. This energy pattern is called 'the other song'. 'The other song' defines our state of being. It determines our perception and response to the world and forms an essential part of our individuality. 'the other song' manifests as a core inner sensation which is specific to each individual. It matches an element from one of the three kingdoms in nature – plant, animal or mineral. Our personalities, life patterns, underlying factors behind stress, physical problems and symptoms are all expressions of this core inner sensation.

The Sensation Method has also evolved a systematic approach of understanding homoeopathic remedies. Each remedy is understood in totality from the point of view of Kingdoms, Sub-kingdoms, Miasm classification, and Levels of Experience. This enables a systematic, effective diagnosis and treatment of the core inner sensation within each patient.

With further advancements by Dr. Sankaran and his team, the Sensation Method has now reached a pinnacle where it has further simplified the art and practice of homoeopathy – the concept is coined as 'The Synergy in Homoeopathy'.

This is a system that is unique – its design can be taught, practiced, and replicated successfully by students and practitioners. This method has brought together both the old and the new approaches in homoeopathy – it has established a universal platform where all approaches in homoeopathy are welcomed and used to aid in the patient's recovery.

About Dr. Dinesh Chauhan

Dr. Dinesh Chauhan practices classical Homoeopathy in Mumbai, India and is well known for his pediatric cases. Insightful and passionate about homoeopathy, he is one of the most influential figures in today's homoeopathic world. He delivers seminars in various countries and is a key lecturer in courses organized by Homoeopathic Research and Charities, The Other Song, and WISH along with Dr. Rajan Sankaran and his team. One of the main focuses in his teaching is his pioneering work on the case taking process, which he describes as "the Scientifically Intuitive Case Witnessing Process." This method is entirely scientific and easy to reproduce. Dr. Dinesh heads the ABJF foundation (Non-profit organization) with his wife Dr Urvi Chauhan where Indian Homoeopaths are taught on non-profit basis.

INSTITUTE OF CLINICAL RESEARCH

Institute of Clinical Research (ICR) was established in 1975 by the late Dr. M. L. Dhawale (1927-87) for imparting values-based, scientific and holistic education to the undergraduates and practitioners of Homoeopathy. Over the years, the Institute has expanded in several places and evolved and is now carries the umbrella name of Dr. M. L. Dhawale Memorial Organizations.

It runs a PG and a UG Homoeopathic college, a number of Homoeopathic Hospitals, Post-graduate training centres, charitable and mobile clinics, community based mother and child care programmes using Homoeopathy as the medium and a number of research programmes. It has successfully conducted Extra Mural Clinical research in Diabetes, Diarrhea, Scabies and Learning Disabilities which have signified a breakthrough in the further reach of Scientific Standardized Homoeopathy into hitherto untracked clinical areas. The Organization provides ample opportunities for Homoeopaths to get clinical training. The Standardised Homoeopathic Practice forms the base for all education, training and research.

Its flagship Hospital, the Rural Homoeopathic Hospital has been upgraded as Centre of Excellence by the Department of AYUSH. This will upgrade the Departments of Psychiatry, Pulmonology, Clinical Research and Medical Informatics.

HOMOEOPATHIC EDUCATION AND RESEARCH INSTITUTE:

HERI was founded in 1994 by Dr K N Kasad MBBS & Dr Kishore Mehta MD to train and create unprejudiced observers from young Homoeopathic graduates with their well planned training program. It imparts training to the neophytes to develop an integrated approach of Clinical Medicine, Materia Medica and Homoeopathic Philosophy in their practice. It has successfully conducted till date number of Workshops, Seminars and Intensive courses in schools all over India. Heri has spread its activity in Bulgaria and many other places in world.
